Lion Picnic Advanced to August 18

Due to conflict with other similar events, the Lions Club picnic planned for the 25th of August has been moved up to the 18th. It will be held in Washington with the Lions club there being host to Hope Lions and their families.

Several attractions will be open at 5:30 p.m. with food service starting at 6:30. The retail merchants and First Baptist Church are both holding similar events in the week of August 24, thus the need of changing the Lions Club date.

Lions are reminded to call Lion Massanelli at PR 7-4205 by noon Monday and give him the number who will attend from your family so the correct number can be determined to purchase food and beverage for the group.

D. McRae Catches Big Mackerel

Dorsey McRae, Jr., of Foster Land & Realty Co. won the annual Alabama Deep Sea Fishing Rodeo last week with a Spanish mackerel weighing 5 pounds, 13½ ounces. Only 2 ounces short of the world record, 5 pounds, 15½ ounces.

Mr. McRae made his catch off Chandeleur Island in the Gulf 85 miles southeast of Mobile. He won the annual trophy and a list of prizes and appeared on the Mobile television station. Among his prizes: An outboard engine, a suit of clothes, a set of tires, a rod and reel, and an electric razor.

Regulations on Ducks to Be the Same

WASHINGTON (AP) — Duck hunting regulations this year will be about the same as last year, it was indicated here Tuesday.

The Fish and Wildlife Service, which sets the regulations, presented the outlook for fall flights of migratory waterfowl to the Waterfowl Advisory Committee.

The committee then held closed discussions, which continue today. Its decision on 1964-65 regulations probably will be announced next week.

The service announced last week that it foresees a small decrease in the flights of ducks in the Pacific and Central flyways from last year. The flights for the Mississippi and Atlantic flyways probably will not change, the service said. Arkansas is in the Mississippi flyway.

Shooting of redhead and canvasback ducks has been prohibited, but aerial surveys indicate

Miss Taylor, a brown-eyed, brown-haired, out of doors type, was chosen over 14 other semifinalists.

Faubus Sees State Voting for Barry

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus said Tuesday that Republican presidential candidate Barry Goldwater would carry Arkansas if the election were held today.

But Faubus said this didn't mean Republican gubernatorial candidate Winthrop Rockefeller would also carry the state — if the election were held today.

Rockefeller said a day earlier that he could beat Faubus — if the election were held now.

Faubus, speaking to a North Little Rock civic club, said Rockefeller is a formidable candidate and Democrats cannot take him lightly as they have done with other GOP hopefuls.

Rockefeller said he hoped to add to his strength with the voters before the Nov. 3 general election.

Turk Planes Again Fly Over Cyprus

By ALEX EFTY

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Turkish jet planes cruised low on reconnaissance missions over northwest Cyprus today only a few hours after the U.N. Security Council appealed to all nations to end flights over Cyprus.

Placard-carrying Greek Cypriots demonstrated outside the U.S. Embassy in Nicosia, shouting for the 400 or so Americans in Cyprus to get out.

"Murderers, get out," they yelled, expressing a conviction that both the United States and Britain supported the Turkish air raids last weekend. "Get out, you sons of donkeys."

Banners demanded: "Yankoes go home. . . Britons go home."

A government spokesman in Ankara said the Turkish jets had taken off before receipt of the council's request to all nations to stop flights over Cyprus. He said they were fighters ordered to photograph but not to strafe or bomb Greek Cypriot positions or troop movements.

Greece charged that the Turks also flew over the Greek islands of Crete and Rhodes, both Tuesday and today, and demanded that they quit it.

Premier George Papandreu's Athens government warned Turkey that any further violations of Greek air space "would compel Greece to act accordingly."

Police in Morphou, 25 miles west of Nicosia, sounded the air raid alarm.

A loud explosion was heard from the direction of Xeros Port, six miles farther west.

United Nations headquarters in Nicosia confirmed the reappearance of Turkish planes but a spokesman said first information only told of one Turkish jet fighter flying low over the Turkish-held village of Kokkina.

The Morphou alert lasted more than an hour. Citizens said two Turkish jets roared over

Cuba Cut Off From All But 3 Americas

By JOSE M. ORLANDO

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — Only three Latin American nations remained on diplomatic terms with Cuba today after Chile severed relations with Fidel Castro's Communist regime. Chile's move isolates Cuba from all its neighbors except Uruguay, Bolivia and Mexico.

The break came only three weeks before Chile's voters are to choose a new president. A hot issue in the campaign is whether U.S. corporations, especially copper companies, should be taken over by the Chilean government.

Some diplomatic observers here think the break with Cuba will hurt the chances of Salvador Allende, a Communist-backed Socialist who is campaigning for president on a socialist-American platform.

The other leading candidate is Christian Democrat Eduardo Frei, a moderate leftist. Although an advocate of reforms, Frei has not suggested that the government take over U.S. corporations.

After the break was announced, Chile's biggest labor organization, the Communist-dominated Central of Workers, said it would retaliate with a nationwide strike. No date has been revealed.

The break with Havana was the first under sanctions voted by the foreign ministers of the Organization of American States July 25 in Washington.

The OAS demanded that all Latin American countries sever both diplomatic and trade ties with Cuba. Although the Chilean announcement said nothing about stopping trade it is expected that such a move will occur.

Last year's trade between Chile and Cuba was valued at about $10 million. Trade so far Fleming died at the Kent and Canterbury Hospital.

Fleming's books sold millions of copies around the world.

Bond fans included many famous persons, the late President John F. Kennedy among them. Allen Dulles, former director of the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency, also listed himself as an avid follower of Fleming's fictional agent.

Like his hero, Fleming was a lean, upper-class Englishman with considerable charm and a flare for food, cars and travel.

In 1952, Fleming married Anne Geraldine, the former Lady Rothermere, as Lady Rothermere, her marriage to the British newspaper owner, Lord Rothermere, was dissolved in 1953.

Fleming's brother, Peter Fleming, also an author.

Ian Fleming attended Eton College, Sandhurst, the British West Point, and the Universities of Munich and Geneva.

During World War II, from 1939 to 1945, he was personal assistant to the director of British naval intelligence.

This year is at about the same level.

predominantly Negro neighborhood, tossing bottles. Negroes smashed a tavern window, police said, and a Negro man was charged with looting.

Paterson Mayor Frank X. Graves said today, "We have every reason to believe there will be further trouble. We are prepared for further trouble tonight."

In Elizabeth, acting Police Director Michael D. Roy said he did not believe the disturbances were racially motivated, but were the work of "a group of young guys out for a lark."

Police appeared to be in control in both cities.

Twelve separate incidents were reported in Paterson. At least three store windows were smashed.

Mayor Graves said a dozen Negro youths boarded a bus and smashed its windows.

Two fires were started in Elizabeth. One was started by a gasoline bomb and a third was started under the front porch of a white residents' home facing an integrated public housing project.

One store was looted.

No serious injuries were reported in either city.

Four persons were arrested in Elizabeth. A Negro man was accused of looting a clothing store and three white youths were arrested after they allegedly threw a bottle from a car. A Negro man was arrested in Paterson on a disorderly persons charge.

Paterson is about 15 miles west of New York City and Elizabeth is 20 miles south of Paterson.

Police said the trouble in Elizabeth began at 11:30 p.m. when a gasoline bomb burst on the sidewalk outside a closed tavern.

As three fire engines roared to the scene, a second gasoline bomb crashed through the window of the tavern and started a small fire.

A short time later an ermbomb was thrown through the window of a Spanish-American grocery. There was no fire.

Negro Vote in State Is Put at 25%

By WICK TEMPLE Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A record number of Arkansas Negroes are expected to go to the polls in the November general election—so many, in fact, that they could account for 25 percent of the total vote.

A current statewide Negro registration drive is aimed at boosting the number of Negroes with poll tax receipts to 100,000. About 394,000 Arkansans voted in the 1960 general election.

The Southern Regional Council, based in Atlanta, is helping finance and organize the registration drive. The Arkansas project director is Ozell Sutton of Little Rock, who is on leave from the Arkansas Council on Human Relations.

Sutton and his aides are setting up county and even block organizations in areas of heavy Negro population in an effort to boost the number of Negro voters to an all-time high.

Here is the basis on which Sutton and his organization, called the Arkansas Voter Project, are working:

—There are 190,000 Negroes in Arkansas who could vote.

—Only about 80,000 of them paid poll taxes for elections through Oct. 1.

—Those 80,000 plus at least 20,000 more can be registered before the poll tax deadline on Oct. 1, Sutton believes.

State Auditor Jimmie Jones said in February that 77,714 Arkansas Negroes were eligible to vote this year—an all-time high.

He estimated that 72,604 were registered in 1960.

But Jones' figures aren't entirely accurate. He goes through the poll tax books and counts the names with the letter "C" (for colored) after them. However, some counties don't register voters by race.

I. S. McClinton, president of the Arkansas Democratic (Negro) Voters Association, estimates that some 3,000 to 4,000 were registered in those counties and therefore not counted by Jones.

McClinton's group is working with Sutton in the registration drive. One of the most important reasons for Negroes to pay poll taxes, McClinton said, is so they can vote on the permanent voter registration amendment in November. If it passes, the number of qualified Negro voters can be increased even more substantially.

McClinton said Arkansas Negroes, "like Negroes all over the country, won't be inclined to support (Sen. Barry) Goldwater for president."

But McClinton said his organization would not be endorsing candidates. "We'll let people vote as individuals," he said.

"But the Negro population feels indebted to this Congress and the present national administration. We have no choice but to support an administration friendly to our cause."

One of the most important things to grow out of continued increases in Negro voter registration in Arkansas, he said, is increasing Negro influence in electing officials and the fact that candidates "must represent all segments" of society.

Sutton calls the Arkansas Voter Project non-political. It will not deal with candidates or issues. It will merely register Negroes to vote, he said.

Sutton said all Negroes are store was broken into and the owner said some suits were taken.

Fifty Elizabeth policemen sped to the area and dispersed about 200 Negroes. Police then turned their attention to youths roaming in cars.

The disturbances broke out on the perimeter of Pioneer Homes, a block-square group of publicly financed apartment buildings for low-income groups. Negroes, Puerto Ricans and some whites live in the project.

In Paterson, an estimated 110 policemen, helmeted and carrying nightsticks, covered a 25-square-block area breaking up groups of young Negroes where ever they congregated.

The first report of trouble came as about 200 Negro teenagers left a city-sponsored dance.

Mayor Graves said the youths began hurling empty bottles and bricks at a passing police car. Twelve Negroes boarded a bus, knocked the hat off one of four passengers and smashed windows.

All available street policemen converged on the Negro district, rerouting buses around Governor street and blocking off the street to all traffic.

Civil rights leaders complained of police brutality, high unemployment and poor housing in the city.

Graves denied that racial discrimination existed in Paterson, a city of 143,000 residents, about 40,000 of whom are Negroes.

Elizabeth has 107,000 residents and 18 per cent are Negroes.

being urged to pay the poll tax. "We're not worrying with free registration that allows you to vote only in federal elections," he said. "We're trying to get them to pay the poll tax and vote in all elections."

There will be a period of free registration in September for persons who wish to vote only in federal elections. In order to vote in state and local elections, including balloting on constitutional amendments, one must have a poll tax.

Sutton said ministers were being urged to set up poll tax booths in the lobbies of their churches.

Sutton's organization, operating on limited capital, is "buying nobody's poll tax receipt," Sutton said.

Sutton said that so far he had run into no cases of intimidation of Negroes in an attempt to keep them from registering. "Anybody who wants to can buy a poll tax in Arkansas," he said.

He said there may be some isolated cases and "imagined fears" on the part of Negroes that they will face reprisals if they register to vote.

"But this is very small scale in Arkansas," he said.

Sutton was going from county to county this week, setting up organizations, calling together ministers, Negro social and political leaders and businessmen.

"We plan to go into at least 35 counties," he said. Many North Arkansas counties have few Negroes. Others have only a small number.

New Peril for Foreign Aid Bill

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate battle lines formed today over efforts to tie a legislative reapportionment rider to the coattails of the foreign aid bill.

Administration leaders saw little prospect of heading off a long floor fight on the rider sponsored by Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen.

Unless a compromise can be reached, final action on the bill may not come until late next week, killing any prospect for the adjournment of Congress in advance of the Democratic National Convention which opens in Atlantic City a week from Monday.

The foreign aid bill suffered two setbacks Tuesday.

First, the Senate trimmed $216.7 million from the $3,516,700,000 asked by President Johnson and approved by the House. The action came on a 50-35 vote adopting an amendment by Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore.

This reduction, added to a $50 million cut recommended by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, slashed the bill $266.7 million below the original "bare bones" request. Supporting the slash were 31 Democrats and 19 Republicans, while 26 Democrats and 9 Republicans opposed it.

Shortly afterward, the program suffered what Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., its floor manager, described as a much more crippling blow. The Senate weighted the bill with an

2 Plead Guilty to Bank Robbery

PARAGOULD, Ark. (AP) — Henry Ahlf, 40, and Mrs. Elaine Fuhrman, 41, both of Flint, Mich., pleaded guilty in circuit court here Tuesday to charges of robbing the M & M a d u k e branch of the Security Bank and Trust Co. last June 26.

Judge Charles Light sentenced them each to 10 years in prison, four years suspended. About $400 was taken at gunpoint from the bank.

Mrs. Fuhrman, formerly of Paragould, and Ahlf were captured about 90 minutes after the robbery. They underwent mental examinations at the State Hospital at Little Rock last month. They will be taken to prison this week.

amendment that would raise interest rates on all development loans abroad, including those under the Alliance for Progress program in Latin America.

Administration leaders were hopeful the cut will be partially restored, and that the interest amendment can be eliminated or modified in a meeting of Senate and House conferees to iron out differences in the two bills.

But they admittedly saw little hope of avoiding a long fight over Dirksen's rider that would be aimed at slowing down court-ordered reapportionment of both houses of state legislatures on a population basis.

Pangborn Defeats N.L.R. 8-6

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — Pangborn out-slugged North Little Rock Elks 8-6 to make the first elimination in the Arkansas Boys Baseball Association tournament here Tuesday night.

In other games, Vilonia, defending state champion, trimmed Big Rock Stone and Material of Little Rock 8-3 and Liberty Eylau of Texarkana defeated Jennings of Texarkana 8-3.

Johnny Bridger, Andy Adams, Allen King, Joe Parnell and Danny Vaden got the run-scoring hits for Pangborn, which led all the way.

Kenny Wilson, Larry Paladino, Ronnie House and Roger Home led North Little Rock at the plate.

Joe Barnes checked Big Rock on a two-hitter for Vilonia.

Vilonia's big inning was the fourth when it got five runs on four singles, a double by Dicky Shannon, two walks and three Little Rock errors. Steve Pickens singled and doubled for Little Rock's hits.

The fourth was also the big inning for Liberty Eylau, which scored six runs on four singles, two walks and three Jennings errors.

Cornell Arterbury homered for Jennings. William Van Zandt, Mike Burks and Jim Webster got key hits for Liberty Eylau.

ACCOUNTANT'S REPORT

The Board of Directors

City of Hope, Arkansas:

We have examined the fund balances of the City of Hope, Arkansas as of December 31, 1963 and the related statements of receipts and disbursements for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the accompanying statements of fund balances and receipts and disbursements present fairly the cash position of the City of Hope, Arkansas at December 31, 1963 and the results of its cash transactions for the year then ended.

TO THE CITIZENS OF HEMPSTEAD COUNTY:

I would like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation for the confidence you have shown in re-electing me as your County Judge.

It is my pledge to work with you, and for you, to make Hempstead County one of the leading Counties in the State.

I am truly grateful for all my friends who worked so diligently in my behalf.

them because they aren't organized. What's needed is a group called Sonnambulists Anonymous or SWAP—Sleep Walkers Are People—or even SLUMBERING—so let us meander boldly everywhere robed in night garb.

His wife, doctor and assorted hospital attendants confirm his sleeping hours are a weird kaleidoscope of grotesque actions. He is likely to startle his wife in the darkness by saying: "Peacock plumes make caviar for squids."

The trouble is that he's never awake to know it. He is left to wander and talk through a mistaken notion that sleepwalkers shouldn't be awakened. The curiosity of man has been plied for centuries by his nocturnal fraternity—they were once thought bewitched—and even modern medical books kiss off sonnambulism as a psychoneurosis.

It's more than that, though. It's a nocturnal adventure in ingenuity.

There is nothing of the hands-outstretched, ghost-like walk in the real sleepwalker, although that's always been the caricature of him. He walks normally with the uncanny ability of making his way safely around furniture, over electric cords and through closed doors.

I should know, because my wife tells me about it the next day. I've been a sleepwalker all my life.

There was the time, with two feet of snow on the ground, when she caught me at the corner a block away, dressed for a night on the town in one tennis shoe, red pajama top and earmuffs.

In a hospital recently, under orders to stay in bed, I got up five times in one night. Finally, I was tied of the bed with restraining jacket. They found me standing in the corner of another floor. The restraining jacket still was fastened to the bed.

Nobody knows how I got loose. I couldn't do it while awake.

One morning, my patient wife who took over retrieving me where my mother left off, asked: "What are capstans?"

Why?

"Because at 4 o'clock you said, 'When you sew up my rope don't forget to use foam-rubber capstans.'"

A capstan is a shipboard gadget for raising anchors. I don't recall ever having heard the word before.

In my sleep, I have climbed a ladder, wooden spoon in hand, to fix the roof, have gotten halfway through ordering a phone call to a flower shop in Manitou, Iowa— is there such a place?—and have packed a suitcase with three old newspapers, a light bulb and two bunches of raw carrots.

The doctor says a psychiatrist probably can help.

My wife is against it. She plans to get rich by collecting my profundities in a book.

Coming and Going

Mrs. Birdell Ross and son Marvin and grandson Charles Cooper have returned to their home in Los Angeles, Calif., after spending a few days visiting her sister, Mrs. Mattie Stuart and other relatives and friends of the city.

Mrs. Mattie and Mrs. Dora Stuart are visiting relatives and friends in Kansas City, Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Elliott left Tuesday for Phoenix, Arizona where they will visit their daughter and son, Dorothy and James Charles Elliott, and other relatives.

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

Mrs. Harold A. Smith

Miss Brenda Kay Wilson and Harold A. Smith were united in marriage at 8 p.m. on July 31 by candlelight in the Bruce Memorial Methodist Church at Blevins. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lendo Wilson and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Smith, all of Blevins.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Bruce Dean, before an arrangement of gladioli and stock, flanked by candelabra. Mrs. Norma Cohea played traditional wedding music. Miss Delaine Bonds sang "Always" and "Walk Hand in Hand." The candles were lit by Miss Pamela Smith of Magnolia, niece of the groom, and Tommy Taylor of Blevins.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of satin topped with a short lace jacket. From her waist flowed a detachable train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held by a cap of satin petals. She carried a white bible topped with lilies of the valley centered with a white orchid.

The bride's attendants were her sisters, Miss Jackie Wilson of Blevins and Mrs. Joe Craig of Prescott. Their dresses were of pink and blue taffeta and chiffon, and they carried pink and blue bouquets.

Serving as best man was Bobby Taylor of Blevins. Ushers were Gene Ravenscraft of Fulton and Joe Craig of Prescott. Miss Carolyn Brooks had charge of the bridesbook.

For her daughters wedding, Mrs. Wilson chose a blue shantung dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Smith, mother of the groom, chose a pink silk dress with matching accessories. They each pinned a white corsage at their shoulder.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the Fellowship Room of the church. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth over pink taffeta centered with an arrangement of candles and pink and blue flowers.

Mrs. Jerry Nelson of Magnolia, sister of the groom, served the three-tiered wedding cake, and Mrs. Charles Bright of Greenville, Texas, sister of the bride, poured the fruit punch.

For travel the bride chose a two-piece blue shantung suit with matching accessories. She pinned the orchid from her bouquet at her shoulder.

After a short trip the couple will be at home in Shreveport, La., where the groom is a physical education major at Centenary College.

would have to integrate to be eligible for federal funds. The funds would pay part of the teachers' and counselors' salaries.

Ford said it appeared doubtful that the government would withhold any of the funds this year. He said the amount involved averaged about $600 per teacher.

The board also postponed action on an application from the Little Rock School Board that it designate the district for an Area Vocational Technical School. This would allow the district to qualify for a federal grant of about $550,000, which would be used to help build a new school in the industrial district in the south part of Little Rock.

The board said it would discuss the matter further at its September meeting. Several board members pointed out that the federal funds are not yet available.

The board meets today in regular session to ratify Sunday's action and to take up other business.

Rice and Soy Beans Up But Corn Down

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department predicted Tuesday increased production in rice, soybeans and winter wheat and decreases in production of peaches and corn in Arkansas this year.

The forecasts were in line with predictions about national production.

The Arkansas soybean crop was forecast at 54,720,000 bushels, a yield of 18 bushels on 3,044,000 acres. The 1963 production was 51,152,000 bushels on 2,923,000 acres, a per acre yield of 17.5 bushels.

Rice production in the state was forecast at 4,250,000 bushels, a yield of 18 bushels on 236,000 acres. This compares with 4,260,000 bushels in 1963, yielding 4,250 bushels per acre for total production of 18,105,000 hundred pound bags in 1963.

Winter wheat production was expected to reach 14,685,000 bushels this year, compared to 15,208,000 bushels last year. Controls have been dropped on wheat, apparently causing the big jump in production.

The corn for grain production was forecast at 25 bushels per acre and 3,875,000 bushels production, dropping from the 1963 figures of 34 bushels per acre and total production of 5,984,000 bushels.

The peace crop was also predicted to be less than in 1963 by

"DEAR ABBY"

STAND UP TO HER!

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: I am a painter. A month ago, while painting the house of a very rich woman, the ladder collapsed (it was her ladder) and I fell to the ground. I broke my leg in several places. Since then I've had no income. I lost $800 in pay and my doctor bill is $150. I asked the woman at least to help me pay my doctor bill and she said her insurance didn't cover that kind of accident and she isn't responsible for my bills.

She is so cheap she told me to buy a box of plaster and make my own cast! She said I was foolish for going to a doctor. She came over with two pain pills she bought at an Army surplus store and said they were just as good as prescription pills. Everyone tells me I am nuts if I don't sue her. She is far from poor, Abby. She owns several houses in town. What should I do?

OUT OF WORK

Dear Out: See a lawyer at once! If you can't afford one, go to your local Legal Aid Society. If your broke your leg on HER ladder, while painting HER house—insurance or no insurance, I'll bet she hasn't a leg to stand on.

Dear Abby: I am an elderly man and have been dating a middle-aged widow for some time. I do not drive, so when I invite her out for dinner her son usually comes by and picks me up. The lady is already in the front seat beside her son, and I have to sit in the back seat all by myself. There is plenty of room for the three of us in the front. Otherwise I think the lady should sit in the back seat with me. I would appreciate

Tiger Lady Has Sister in U.S. Army

FT. BRAGG, N.C. (AP)—The Army has confirmed that Madame Tran Le Chi, only sister of South Viet Nam's Madame Ngo Dinh Nhu, is a language instructor at the John F. Kennedy Center for Special Warfare.

A copyrighted story in the Fort Lauderdale (Fla.) News Monday said Madame Tran was a language instructor and political advisor.

Maj. Irwin C. Nye, information officer, confirmed she has been a language advisor since June 18 but said she "is not and never has been employed as a political advisor."

Maj. Nye said Madame Tran, 35, refuses to give interviews.

Madame Nhu, now living in exile in France, has been a bitter critic of the United States. Her husband and his brother, Ngo Dinh Diem, were slain in the overthrow of Diem's regime last year.

Integration Asked for Parochials

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Mississippi's Roman Catholics have been asked to lower racial barriers in their parochial schools this fall.

Bishop Richard O. Gerow, in a pastoral letter read to all parishioners Sunday, called for integration of first grades.

Implementation of the pastoral letter will be voluntary.

"It is to be the policy of the Catholic schools in the diocese to admit qualified Catholic children to the first grade without respect to race," Bishop Gerow's letter said.

"I rely on your devotion," his letter continued, "and ask for your prayers that whatever adjustments ensue, they may respond to the greatest honor and glory of God and the strengthening of the bond of charity which unites us all in Christ."

Implementation of his decision, the bishop said, "will be handled by each pastor in consultation with me" and begin in September.

A Catholic source said the diocese did not know how many students will be integrating classrooms.

The move follows a recent federal court action ordering public schools in Jackson, Biloxi and Leake County to integrate this fall—Mississippi's first public school desegregation below the college level.

Public school integration will also start with the first grade. Bishop Gerow's order encompasses 50 white and Negro elementary parochial schools. They have an enrollment of 13,408 pupils.

There are an estimated 71,132 Catholics among the 2,178,141 Mississippians.

about 370,000 bushels. The production for this year was estimated at 1.1 million bushels.

The department forecast Monday decreased cotton production in the state. The 1964 crop was estimated to be 1,475,000 bales, which is 21,000 below 1963 production.

Acresage for cotton was 1,230,000, the same as in 1963.

Dear Abby: My husband is a handsome man in his early forties. We have been married only a few months. I knew he had false teeth when I married him, but I had never seen him with his teeth out. Soon after we were married, he started taking his teeth out the minute he came home. Now he never wears them around the house. If we go somewhere, he won't put his teeth in until the last minute, and as soon as we get home he takes them out again.

I told him he should see his dentist if he is having trouble, but he says he has already spent enough money on false teeth and he doesn't want to spend any more. His dentist is supposed to be one of the best in town. We have a small income, but I think this is important. I hate to nag him about it, but I don't know how much longer I can take this. He looks like an old man with his teeth out.

A BRIDE

Dear Bride: Call your husband's dentist and tell him what you've told me. If he's one of the "best" in town, he will probably insist on adjusting the dentures without charge so they'll be comfortable and wearable.

Turk Planes

several times, apparently flying between Morphot and Xeros. Turkish jet fighters carried out daily attacks on Greek Cypriot villages in northwest Cyprus from last Friday until Monday.

Tuesday, Turkish planes confined their flights to reconnaissance over the Kokkina region where Greek and Turkish Cypriot forces are observing a cease fire after heavy fighting last week.

President Makarios said his Greek Cypriots would fight "alone or with others" to preserve their rule of Cyprus, in a broadcast Tuesday that underscored a rift with Greece.

While Makarios rallied his people in the nationwide broadcast, Athens radio said Greek Cypriots launched an offensive against Turkish Cypriot positions in northwest Cyprus Aug. 5 without consulting Greece.

Turkey responded with four days of air attacks on Greek Cypriot territory.

Athens radio said the Greek Cypriots broke an agreement in failing to get Greece's approval of the military campaign.

It said Greek Premier George Papandreu sent a cable to Makarios saying: "I express my deepest sorrow because we have agreed differently and you have acted differently."

Greek Cypriot Foreign Minister Spyros Kyprianou flew to Athens Tuesday and met with Papandreu according to Athens radio. Later, the Greek government issued a communique pledging full support to Greek Cypriots in case of another Turkish attack.

"In view of the barbaric Turkish bombing of the noncombatant population, the Athens government decided in an extraordinary session to throw its full weight in support of Cyprus," Athens radio said.

The broadcast said the Greek government deferred a decision to send its air force into action against the Turkish jets until the U.N. Security Council in New York considered the crisis.

After angry exchanges between the Greek Cypriot and Turkish delegates Tuesday night, the council appealed to all nations to end flights over Cyprus. Two Turkish fighters flew a reconnaissance mission over the northwest coast earlier in the day.

Makarios said he expected his appeals for military aid to be successful. Cyprus has asked for help from the Soviet Union, the United Arab Republic, Yugoslavia and Syria, but the response has been mainly words of support.

In Ankara, Turkish air commanders said their planes would continue reconnaissance flights and were ready to deal out heavier blows if the Greek Cypriots renew attacks on civilian villages.

The civil war began last December when the Makarios government tried to end the legislative veto of the Turkish Cypriot minority.

Flat Tires for Parking Over Limit

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP)—Rio de Janeiro solved its illegal parking problem by deflating the tires of violators.

Sister city Sao Paul has come up with a more subtle but just as effective solution:

Illegally parked cars are impounded. To recover the car, the owner must go to the proper department and pay the 20 cruzeiro—less than two cents—fine.

Simple? The Paulistas have employed every trick in the bureaucratic book to make it complicated.

The owner must go in person. The pound is on the outskirts near the airport. No buses go by it. It is either an expensive taxi ride or a long walk.

When the owner arrives he finds a line ahead of him.

The delegates charged with accepting the fines is painstaking in checking documents and is obliged to pause frequently for coffee breaks or to talk on the telephone.

New Homer Record for Hank Aaron

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

It was a bad night for the New York Yankees all around. Even Joe DiMaggio was knocked down a peg.

While the Chicago White Sox whipped the Yankees in a doubleheader, Milwaukee's Hank Aaron whipped past the Yankee Clipper into 14th place on the all-time home run list, hammering his 19th and 20th of the season as the Braves walloped Houston 9-6 Tuesday night.

The homers lifted Aaron's career total to 362—one more than DiMaggio—and shoved the 30-year-old right-handed swinger into the National League spotlight that has been focusing almost steadily on the tight pennant struggle between Philadelphia and San Francisco.

Aaron's outstanding performances over the last half of the season have gone virtually unnoticed, but he has been hitting at a .355 clip since June 21 and climbed into the No. 6 spot in the league with a .314 average. In the 48 games over that stretch, he has driven in 45 runs.

While Aaron continued his heavy hitting for Milwaukee, Johnny Callison did the same for league-leading Philadelphia, slugging the first grand slam of the season by the Phillies and adding two doubles in a 13-5 walloping of the Chicago Cubs.

The victory kept the Phillies three games in front of the San Francisco Giants, but may have cost them the services of outfielders Cookie Rojas and Tony Gonzalez, the latest additions to an ever-growing injury list.

Rojas jammed both wrists when he ran into the center field wall chasing a fly ball and Gonzalez, his replacement, was hit on his protective helmet by a Dick Ellsworth pitch. Both players were taken to the hospital, but the injuries were not considered serious.

The Giants rode homers by Willie Mays and Orlando Cepeda to a 6-3 victory over St. Louis, the Cincinnati Reds edged the Los Angeles Dodgers 4-2 on homers by Frank Robinson and Deron Johnson and the New York Mets defeated Pittsburgh 3-2 in a game halted after 7½ innings by rain.

American League - leading Baltimore outslugged Boston 3-7, the Chicago White Sox swept a doubleheader from the New York Yankees 6-4 and 8-2. Minnesota downed Detroit 5-3. Cleveland shut out the Los Angeles Angels 3-0 and Washington defeated Kansas City 5-2.

Frank Thomas slammed three doubles for his new Philadelphia teammates, driving in three runs for a 3-0 lead but the Cubs came back to move in front on homers by Andre Rodgers and Ernie Banks.

Callison then broke it up with his grand slam, capping a five-run rally touched off by Gus Triandos' homer. The two homers left the Cubs' Ellsworth, a 22-game winner last season, with a 12-14 record.

Harvey Kuenn collected three doubles for the Giants, triggered three rallies and scored three runs. He came home on Hal Lanier's single in the first on Cepeda followed with his 20th homer. In the third Kuenn scored on Mays' 33rd homer and in the seventh he was driven in on a sacrifice fly by Cepeda.

Robinson homered in the first for the Reds, then tripled in the fourth and Johnson followed with his homer. That was enough for Joey Jay, who struck out 13, scattered seven Dodger hits and brought his record to 8-8.

The Mets beat their nemesis, Bob Friend, who had a 12-0 life time record against the New Yorkers. Larry Elliot drove in two of the Mets' runs with a homer and single while Jack

Redskins to Win, Coach Declares

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP) — Bill McPeak breaks all the rules for football coaches. He steps right out front and says he thinks his Washington Redskins are going to win.

"If we can keep our quarter-back in one piece, we can take it all," said the coach-general manager of the "Skins at the training base at Dickinson College. "I don't know how good he was until we got him."

McPeak was talking about Sonny Jurgensen, the quarterback he got from Philadelphia in a trade for Norm Snead, his former protegee. At the moment, Jurgie can walk on water as far as McPeak is concerned.

Of course, walking is all Jurgie can do at the moment, since he is out for some 10 days with an injured knee, but the quarter-back is expected to be fit for the opener on Sept. 13 against the tough Browns.

"I think the Eastern Conference will be a hodge podge," said McPeak.

McPeak counts on Sam Huff, the ex-New York Giant, to steady his defense just as he expects Jurgensen to lead the offense.

"We've never had a line-backer like Huff," said McPeak. "Sam is full of vinegar and he wants to do well. He was pleasantly surprised at the caliber of our defensive line."

The "Skins' attack will hinge on Jurgensen's passes, primarily to flanker Bobby Mitchell and Angelo Coia, the speedy new split end acquired from the Chicago Bears.

The running game depends on Charley Taylor of Arizona State, who wasn't able to join the club until this week because of the College All-Star game.

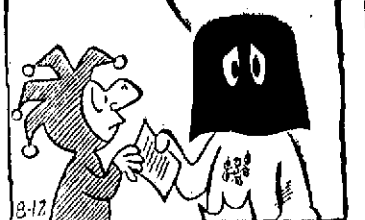

Tom (The Bomb) Tracy, trimmed down to 190 pounds, Billy Barnes and Don Bosseler are available. McPeak liked what he saw of rookie Dick Drummond in early camp. The fullback position is a scramble among Bosseler, Dave Francis, J.W. Lockett and rookie Gene Donaldson from Purdue.

The offensive line of tackles Riley Mattson and Frank O'Brien, guards Vince Promuto and John Nisby and center Fred Hageman is intact, with rookie Len Hauss of Georgia pushing Hageman. There are no solid reserves.

McPeak's big job has been to shore up the deep defense. The front four of John Paluck, Bob Tonneff, Joe Rutgers and Ron Fisher limited the Pirates to 6-15 three hits.

Home Run Shortage Hits Yanks

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Watching these days makes an observer recall that advertising slogan with a slight variation: "Wonder where that power went?"

This has to be the weakest Yankee hitting team in years. The club has a composite batting average of under .250, with Mickey Mantle the only 300-hitter. His average is .310.

Worse, it is not producing the long ball, a long-time Yankee trademark. It is almost unbelievable, but true, that six of the nine other American League clubs top the Yanks in home runs. Such a phenomenon hasn't occurred in 45 years, or since Babe Ruth joined the organization.

The normally weak-hitting White Sox of Chicago added insult to injury Tuesday by out-homer the Yankees as they swept both ends of a day-night twin bill 6-4 and 8-2. The double loss, the Yankees' fourth and fifth in their last six games, buried them deeper in third place, swept both ends of a day-night twin bill 6-4 and 8-2. The double loss, the Yankees' fourth and fifth in their last six games, buried them deeper in third place, 3½ games behind the front-running Baltimore Orioles and 2½ behind the White Sox.

Chicago hit four homers to two by the Yankees.

"It's the law of averages," said White Sox Manager Al Lopez. "The Yankees beat us 10 straight and we were long overdue. I've been around long enough to know that everything evens up in the long run."

The Yanks have looked drab and dismal in recent days. Normally a fine defensive club, they committed two errors in each game to go along with their 11 hits.

The pitching, with Whitey Ford out indefinitely because of a hip injury, is uncertain and undermanned. Manager Yogi Berra is in such a pinch for pitching, he was forced to dig into the club's Richmond farm for help.

Mel Stottlemyre, called up Tuesday, was immediately nominated to start against the White Sox today.

"The club is down," said Berra. "We're not tired. We're just in a rut. We're just not hitting. We can't seem to get that big inning. We picked a heck of a time to go into a slump."

The Yankees have more than 50 games left to play. But with two teams in front of them, neither of which they play after Aug. 20, it looks like a long uphill climb.

They just don't seem to have enough—pitching, or the sock to make up for it.

Travelers Build Lead to 7 Games

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Arkansas spread its Eastern Division lead in the Pacific Coast League to six games with a 7-1 shelling of Indianapolis here Tuesday night.

Joel Gibson threw a three-hitter, striking out 10, to get the victory. He had a no-hitter for six and two-thirds innings, but Minnie Minozo tripled in the seventh and came home on Gary Johnson's single.

Bobby Malkmus slugged a triple to score a run for Arkansas in the third inning, a double for a run in the sixth and a bases-empty home run in the seventh. Gibson's no-hit bid almost ended in the second inning. Ramon Conde of Indianapolis drilled a liner to left center and it went for a double.

But Arkansas called for the ball, tagged first base, and umpire Ociebe Jekis ruled that Conde had not touched first base and was out.

Gibson's 3-Hitter Is Good Enough

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Joel Gibson allowed Indianapolis only three hits Tuesday night as the Arkansas Travelers romped over the Indians for a 7-1 Pacific Coast League victory.

Only Minnie Minozo was able to break Gibson's spell. He did it with a triple in the seventh, and Gary Johnson brought him home for the Indians' lone run.

Gibson didn't walk any one as he collected his eighth win against six losses. He got a big lift from Bob Malkmus, who homered, tripled and doubled.

While the Eastern Division leaders were chalking up another victory, second-place Oklahoma City helped them along by dropping a 5-4 decision to Denver, allowing the Travelers to open up a six-game lead.

Seattle downed Portland 7-2, Spokane shut out Tacoma 3-0, Dallas defeated Salt Lake 7-1 and Hawaii blasted San Diego 13-3 in other games.

The Denver Bears scored four runs in the fourth. The outburst was highlighted by Lou Klimchick's two-run triple. Phil Niekro chalked up his eighth win against three losses. Jim Wynn homered for the losers in the seventh.

The Seattle Rainiers tallied five runs in the fifth, capped by Rac Slider's two-run homer. The uprising broke a 2-2 tie, and the Rainiers coasted the rest of the way behind the hurling of Hal Holstad, who struck out 12. Tommy Agee homered for Portland in the third.

Bill Singer went the distance for Spokane, giving up five hits. Singer also singled in one of Spokane's runs and scored another after walking.

The Dallas Rangers won their game in the first inning by scoring four times. Monty Montague was the winner. He doubled and then scored in the fourth and singled and scored again in the sixth.

Hawaii collected seven runs in the first inning to defeat the San Diego Padres, leads in the Western Division. John Papa was the winning hurler. Carlos Bernier and Dick Simpson homered for the Islanders. Tim Harkness hit a pair of homers for San Diego and Art Shamsky also connected for the distance.

players of the first four place teams approximately $15 each of their share. The plan goes into effect this year.

The league also approved a resolution asking Frick to remain on the job through the 1965 World Series. Last week Frick said he would not seek re-election after his contract expires in September 1965 and would step down whenever a new commissioner was elected.

A resolution also was adopted specifying that the contract of a major league player cannot be assigned to a lower classification five days prior to a major league draft.

World News

GENEVA (AP) — Dr. W. A. Visser't Hooft, general secretary of the World Council of Churches, says Pope Paul's encyclical indicates Christian unity is still a long way off.

Dr. Visser't Hooft, whose organization represents 209 Protestant, Anglican and Orthodox denominations, said Tuesday it was "encouraging" that the Pope emphasized the necessity of continued dialogue among all Christians.

But he added: "The concept of dialogue which the encyclical develops is not quite the same as that which we have used and practiced for many years in the ecumenical movement. According to the encyclical, dialogue is mainly a form of communication of the truth which the Roman Catholic Church holds."

COLOMBO, Ceylon (AP) — Ceylon's press faces new controls aimed at curbing concentration of newspaper ownership and criticism of the government.

Prime Minister Sirimavo Bandaranaike approved Tuesday the establishment of a press council and tribunal to carry out the recommendations of a three-man study commission.

The commission suggested that the tribunal draft a code of ethics for newspapers, fix prices and advertising rates, license reporters and pave the way for the nationalization of Ceylon's largest newspaper group, Associated Newspapers of Ceylon Ltd.

MOSCOW (AP) — The skipper of the Soviet cruise ship Gruzia says only the skill of his sailors prevented a collision with the U.S. destroyer Ketchner on a trip to Cuba.

"There was a moment when a collision with the U.S. destroyer seemed inevitable," Capt. T. Makatsaiy was quoted as saying in the government newspaper Izvestia Tuesday. "Many of the U.S. sailors rushed on deck wearing lifejackets."

The captain also said the Gruzia was buzzed several times by U.S. planes. He did not say where or when the incidents occurred. The Gruzia is in the Soviet port of Kalingrad.

Ike Speaker at Summit Meet GOP

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) —

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower will be the main speaker Wednesday when Republican governors and gubernatorial candidates gather for a campaign strategy session with political and organizational leaders of their party.

Republican presidential nominee Sen. Barry M. Goldwater called the meeting. Others scheduled to attend include Goldwater's vice presidential running mate, Rep. William E. Miller of New York, and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Eisenhower will speak at a luncheon at 1 p.m. EDT, to be followed by a news conference. A morning business session will be closed with participation limited to 38 GOP party leaders, including 14 governors and the same number of gubernatorial candidates.

Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton, who bitterly fought Goldwater for the presidential nomination at last month's GOP convention, is host for the meeting, although his duties are nominal.

New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, who at first opposed Goldwater for the nomination but withdrew in favor of Scranton, also plans to attend.

Earl D. Eisenhower Jr. of Washington, a nephew of the former president, said the meeting was called "to plan campaign strategy." Others taking part will be R. Dean Burch, Republican national chairman; John Grenier, executive director of the National GOP committee; Wayne J. Hood, campaign field director; Sen. Thurston Morton, R-Ky., chairman of the Senate GOP campaign committee, and Rep. Robert Wilson, R-Calif., chairman of the House GOP campaign committee.

Yogi Berra Now Is on the Hot Seat

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Manager Yogi Berra isn't reaching for the panic button yet. It wouldn't be the thing to do in the staid, gray flannel world of New York Yankee supremacy.

But you'll have to forgive Berra if he's wondering just a bit. He's been a Yankee for 17 years and he's seen pennant races reach into August before. That's where the similarity between his club, which lost a day-night doubleheader to the Chicago White Sox 6-4 and 8-2 Tuesday, and former Yankee teams seems to end.

The White Sox, who had lost 10 straight to New York, weren't about to extend that string. Pete Ward stroked three hits, including his 17th home run and drove in four runs as Chicago snapped the streak with the afternoon victory.

They were even more convincing in the nightcap as Ward had three more hits and Juan Pizarro fired a five-hitter winning his 15th game. Pizarro added insult to injury by capping a five-run Chicago burst in the sixth inning with his third homer of the year — a three-run shot into the right field bleachers.

The double victory pulled the White Sox to within one game of the league-leading Baltimore Orioles who edged the Boston Red Sox 8-7. Elsewhere in the American League, Washington whipped Kansas City 5-2, Minnesota downed Detroit 5-3 and Cleveland shut out Los Angeles 3-0.

In the National League, Philadelphia whacked Chicago 13-5, New York nipped Pittsburgh 3-2, Cincinnati dropped Los Angeles 4-2, Milwaukee defeated Houston 9-6 and San Francisco whipped St. Louis 6-3.

The losses dropped the third-place Yankees 3½ games off the pace, gave them five defeats in six games against Baltimore and Chicago in the last week and left Berra worried.

Baltimore got three two-run homers — the last one Boog Powell's 30th circuit blow of the season — to whip the Red Sox. Brooks Robinson and Sam Bowens also connected for the Orioles, who beat relief ace Dick Radatz.

Powell's shot in the seventh inning came on a 1-2 pitch with two out and broke a tie that was created when Robinson clouted his 16th an inning earlier.

Jim King and Don Locke homered to back up Claude Osteen's pitching for the Senators' victory. Osteen, who won his 11th, was replaced by Jim Hannan in the seventh. Nelson Mathews homered for the Athletics in the ninth.

Earl Battey drove in three runs and Tony Oliva slammed his 26th homer as the Twins snapped a seven-game Tiger winning streak. Detroit built an early 3-0 lead around Don Demeter's 15th homer but Hank Aguirre (2-6) couldn't hold it.

Rookie Luis Tiant won his fifth game, a four-hitter, and Max Alvis belted a three-run homer in the ninth inning for all the runs as the Indians blanked the Angels. Alvis' shot, his 13th homer of the season, was the third baseman's first hit since returning to the lineup after missing a month because of spinal meningitis.

Old Presses Borrowed by Mint

DENVER Colo. (AP) — Two old coin presses in museums may be used to help mint silver dollars.

One is an 86-year-old press on display at the Nevada State Museum in Carson City. The other is on display in a San Francisco museum.

"If they're in working order, we hope to borrow them," said Mrs. Fern Miller, director of the Denver Mint.

Congress recently authorized the minting of 45 million cartwheels — the first since 1945. They will all be produced in Denver.

Integration at Ft. Smith Up to Judge

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — U.S. District Judge John E. Miller said Monday he would decide this week whether to void a Fort Smith School Board integration plan challenged by Mrs. Corina Rogers, a Negro.

Testimony was begun and completed Monday in U.S. District Court here.

Mrs. Rogers is attempting to get her high-school age daughters, Patricia and Janice, into a white Fort Smith high school.

The board's revised plan calls for desegregation at the rate of one grade per year, and School Supt. Chris Corbin said some Negroes would enter the eighth grade at previously all-white schools this fall. Seven grades have been desegregated.

Corbin said the only major change in the revised plan was elimination of a provision for students to change schools at will out of their attendance areas.

He testified the board's plan still rules out lateral transfers of Negro students to white schools. He added that placing white students in previously all-Negro schools this fall would present some difficulty and adversely affect the total education of the district's 13,000 pupils.

Corbin said there were fewer Negro teachers because there were fewer Negro students. Mrs. Rogers filed the suit Sept. 12, 1963 and charged that the school board and school officials have not offered equal

Fire High Up Menaces Redwood

PORTERVILLE, Calif. (AP) — Forest rangers said "now it's up to the tree," as they fought to save a massive, 200-year-old redwood from a fire smoldering within its trunk.

The tree, which towers to a height of 200 feet in Sequoia National Forest, was hit twice by lightning last week.

Since then, fire has nagged at the trunk 150 feet from the ground, marked by an outpouring of smoke but rarely showing flames.

"We've done all we can to save her," said Gene Sadler, foreman of the Milo forestry station. "Now we can only watch to see if the tree will resist the fire by itself."

"At present, it seems to be holding its own."

Since lightning first struck the tree last Tuesday, as many as 50 men have tried to stop the fire, aided by a helicopter, a pumper truck and a bulldozer.

Because of the height of the fire, the pumper couldn't put it out. Ten loads of chemicals dropped from the helicopter went off the foliage above the fire like water off a duck's back.

A ranger described the burning redwood as "a female seed tree and parent of most of the redwoods in the area" — about 150 miles north of Los Angeles in the Sierra foothills.

"Any ordinary tree would have been cut down immediately to protect against it setting other trees afire," said forestry dispatcher Harry Harp.

"But this one is a seed tree, vital to the natural reforestation of the area."

Captured Yank Is Put on Parade

TOKYO (AP) — One of two American pilots shot down in the Aug. 5 U.S. air strike on North Vietnamese naval bases was marched through the streets of Hanoi after his plane was shot down in that Gulf of Tonkin city, Radio Hanoi announced tonight.

The lieutenant pilot Everett Alvarez Jr. (of San Jose, Calif.), taken prisoner by the (North) Vietnamese people, pale, weary, and awe-stricken, staggered along the streets of Hanoi in his dirty U.S. uniform under the escort of proud Vietnamese people's army men," the Communist Vietnamese radio said in a broadcast monitored here.

The radio, quoting a report made public in the official newspaper Nhan Dan, did not report on his condition. But from the Communist account it seemed Alvarez suffered no serious injury when his plane went down over the coastal city.

THE GET-AWAY

By Steve April

I don't care what the police say, my Aunt Sophia isn't a crook.

As far back as I can recall Sophia has always been a jolly soul without a mean thought. And fat. She suffered from an enlarged appetite. How that woman could eat!

When I was old enough to first remember Aunt Sophia she was 19, a bouncing girl of some 260 pounds. Of course, poor Sophia soon suffered the pangs of frustration, the loneliness of the obese. As I grew up I didn't see Sophia often. I was away at school, in the army for a spell, and now my sales job keeps me traveling.

Thus, I was astonished some weeks ago when this trim little woman in shabby clothes hugged me on the street and said, "Steve! I'm so glad to see you!"

The face was dimly familiar, although I know few women in their 40s. I must have looked blank for she said, "I'm Sophia!"

"Of course! But... why you must be down to 150 pounds!"

"Steve, I'm 125½. You're just the man I want to see. I'm on to a big business deal, will need a sales manager shortly."

I took Sophia for coffee and she explained that having been on all sorts of diets for most of her life, she was something of an expert on reducing. "The point is," she went on, "I've developed a pill which will cause you to lose five pounds in minutes. It's a secret formula, a new approach that... never mind what it does. But you see what this means, we're a nation of fatsos and using my pills a person drops 10 or 15 pounds minus strain or crash diets."

Under ordinary circumstances I wouldn't have believed a pitch like this, but there was Aunt Sophia at about half of what she'd weighed when I saw her last. A person doesn't get that way by any ordinary means, or any ordinary diet. She must have had outside help.

"You'll make a fortune. Is this ready to market?"

My idea. Of course, was to get into this business. If it worked on Aunt Sophia, it ought to work on anyone who wanted to get rid of excess weight. Things like this make fortunes for people.

"Not yet. I'm still experimenting on myself. Lost so much weight I don't buy new clothes anymore. At first my pills caused the loss of a pound. According to my figures I can increase this to 10 pounds, with no side effects."

"Is it safe to experiment on yourself? Shouldn't you work with a doctor, Sophia?"

"And have him steal my idea? My former boss has been backing me with a few thousand and I'll have to cut him in. Steve, in about a week phone me at this number. I'll know when I'm ready to start production. Be a ground-floor opportunity for you."

When I called she said excitedly, "I have it up to 95 pounds myself and feel great. I'm trying to increase the loss to 20 pounds a pill. May be a chain reaction, bringing the loss to 50 pounds a pill, which is too sexy."

Hollywood Delightful in Fakery

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Roy Rogers and Dale Evans were rehearsing their guest — star parts in one of Andy Williams' forthcoming variety shows in an NBC sound stage recently.

As part of a big, colorful country-style production number, Roy was to ride on stage in a motor scooter. "My hairless horse," with Dale poised, side-saddle, on the seat behind. After a couple of swings around the stage and some dancing with the chorus boys, Dale climbed to a special elevated set. Then she launched into a song without a suggestion of breathlessness.

But, if a spectator sitting in the audience had taken his eyes off the stage and its activity, he would have noticed that during the song, the members of the orchestra at the side of the stage were idly reading newspapers and dozing.

This fakery is a bit of routine film magic, a technique of lip synchronization or "lip-syn," which permits a movie star to warble like a nightingale, courtesy of some unseen soprano's vocal chords; gives the impression that those lines of chorus boy and girl dancers also can sing like the Salt Lake City Mormon Tabernacle Choir and, most important, frees a performer from a microphone to frolic all over a stage.

The process involves technical skill. Singers and nonsingers must learn to mouth the words to give a convincing pantomime while the recording is being played. Most veterans handle it beautifully, although once in a while a sharp-eyed viewer will catch a slip-up.

Some performers, engrossed in other chores, have been known to forget the lyrics of the song they were supposed to be singing. As a bit of extra insurance, there is usually a fellow standing "just outside camera range holding up cards on which the lyrics are in large print.

vere. In that case I'll go back to my 10 pound formula, start production. Phone in another week."

I never did call.

Two days later the police came around to ask if I'd seen Sophia. She'd borrowed $1,000 from her backer and disappeared. The police claimed Sophia had been working a con angle all the time, taken her backer for $5000. They'd found a few pots and test tubes in her room, but that was only a front, they said. Her clothes were still there, but these were so old she probably bought a new wardrobe. Of course, I told the police they were wrong, Aunt Sophia wasn't a crook.

I got permission to search her room. So far I haven't found her notes and I hope she didn't carry them in her head, for I have a good idea of what really happened. And there's a fortune waiting if I can only find her notes. Sophia's old nightgown and slippers are still on her bed.

I can picture Aunt Sophia mixing a batch of new pills and lying down to await the results. But the big jump in weight reduction, the chain reaction she'd mentioned over the phone, had actually happened. She'd said she only weighed 95 pounds and if she took two pills with an expected 50-pound reduction action per pill.

Correct. Aunt Sophia didn't skip out, she merely reduced to nothing, vanished!

Humphrey Is State Choice for Veep

By JOHN R. STARR

Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas delegates to the Democratic National Convention are being realistic about the matter of a vice president.

They would prefer a southern conservative on the ticket with President Lyndon B. Johnson, but they're ready to accept a northern liberal to "balance the ticket" in the eyes of the North and East where Johnson needs to score heavily if he is to beat Republican nominee Barry Goldwater.

Arkansas Democrats, however, regard Johnson as a liberal, even if he was once considered a ticket balancer with John F. Kennedy.

The northernmost acceptable to Arkansas appears to be Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota. He was the favorite of eight of 22 Democratic delegates naming a choice for vice president in an Associated Press poll.

The remaining 14 votes were scattered among a dozen men, including Arkansas Sens. J. William Fulbright and John L. McClellan.

The Arkansas delegation, which votes under the unit rule, will cast its 32 votes for Johnson and the delegation is expected to support Johnson's vice presidential choice.

Arkansas supported Johnson for president in 1960 when he lost the nomination to Kennedy. Twenty-seven of the 100 delegates and alternates responded to the poll. Both delegates and alternates will be permitted to vote when the delegation decides how its unit vote will be cast.

Dr. L. H. McDaniel of Tyrone was one of the delegates favoring Humphrey, whom he described as "young, energetic, forceful and a convincing speaker to help in an intensive campaign."

Sam Levine of Pine Bluff said Humphrey would provide "balance and the most vote getting."

Jack G. Coleman of Marianna, chairman of the Arkansas Students for Johnson, listed Fulbright as his first choice and Humphrey as his second.

"I think LBJ can carry the south and most western, eastern and northern states by having Fulbright for vice-president," Coleman said. "Humphrey would be similar to Fulbright, but many southerners are greatly against him."

One delegate, who asked that his name not be used, suggested that the Democrats should turn from political circles and get a businessman or a corporation executive for a vice presidential candidate.

NEW YORK (AP) — Thomas F. Patton, chairman of the American Iron and Steel Institute, said today 1964 steel production might approach 120 million tons, a record high.

The tonnage had been mentioned in trade circles as possible, but Patton was the first top-ranking industry leader to cite it.

In May, Patton, who also is board chairman of Republic Steel Corp., third largest steel producer, predicted that ingot output could reach 117 million tons, matching the record set in 1955.

The new appraisal fell into a pattern of successive brightening estimates by steel executives since early in the year.

Patton's comment came in a statement announcing industry plans for "Century Two" observances starting Sept. 14.

The first commercial heat of steel in the United States was made in a small experimental plant at Wyandotte, Mich., in September 1864.

To commemorate the event, a "Century Two" steel industry symbol will be created, fashioned through melting metal samples from 150 production plants in the United States, Canada and Latin America into a single ingot of stainless steel.

Coast Guard Has Offbeat Moments

SEATTLE (AP) — Although it handled 105 cases over the weekend, the 13th Coast Guard District coasted into some unguarded moments.

Hurrying to investigate a "body" bobbing in the surf at Depoe Bay, Ore., Coast Guardsmen found a seal.

Some 10 miles south of Newport, Ore., two elderly women picked the wrong spot to dig for clams.

Barry Bids for Unity in Party Ranks

NEW YORK (AP) — Striving to unite the Republican party behind his campaign for president, Sen. Barry Goldwater has paraphrased the controversial extremism quotes of his acceptance speech.

Goldwater offered the clarification of his views in a letter to former Vice President Richard M. Nixon which was made public Sunday almost on the eve of the Hershey, Pa., summit conference for GOP unity.

"If I were to paraphrase the two sentences in question in the context in which I uttered them," Goldwater wrote in response to an inquiry by Nixon, "I would do it by saying that wholehearted devotion to liberty is unassailable and that halfhearted devotion to justice is indefensible."

The "two sentences in question" were a specially stressed part of Goldwater's July 15 speech at San Francisco accepting the Republican presidential nomination. He said then:

"I would remind you that extremism in the defense of liberty is no vice. And let me remind you also that moderation in the pursuit of justice is no virtue."

Goldwater's extremism remarks drew a denunciation by New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and touched off a flood of controversy across the country.

Critics of Goldwater insisted the words were a blanket approval of extremism. Some Republican officeholders, such as Sens. Jacob K. Javits and Kenneth B. Keating of New York, shunned any pretense of climbing on the Goldwater bandwagon for the sake of party harmony.

Goldwater sought to ease the controversy over his remarks a week ago by pointing to President Johnson's air strike against Communist North Viet Nam as an example of extremism in defense of liberty.

But the letter to Nixon went into an explanation at length. Goldwater's 550-word letter said misunderstandings should not be permitted to impair Republican unity. Nixon had written Goldwater last Tuesday suggesting "it would be most helpful to clear the air once and for all" on the matter of extremism.

Republican leaders will meet Wednesday at Hershey in a move for party unity Gov. William W. Scranton, who in the closing stages of the primary campaign led the fight against Goldwater, will preside.

Rockefeller, who has pledged to support the Republican ticket but has shown little enthusiasm for campaigning, also will attend.

Resolution Unites U.S. on Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has signed the congressional resolution supporting his actions in Southeast Asia and says he hopes it is read around the world as it states plainly "where America stands."

"To any armed attack upon our forces," said the President, "we shall reply."

"To any in Southeast Asia who ask our help in defending their freedom, we shall give it."

With military and congressional leaders grouped around him, Johnson signed the joint resolution Monday with a couple dozen pens in the East Room of the White House.

Noting its quick and almost unanimous passage in both houses of Congress, Johnson remarked, "The unanimity of the Congress reflects the unanimity of the country."

Johnson recalled he had asked for the resolution approving his actions after ordering American naval forces last Tuesday to send air strikes against North Vietnamese PT boats and bases in retaliation for attacks on American destroyers in the Gulf of Tonkin.

"This resolution," he added, "confirms and reinforces powers of the presidency. I pledge to all Americans to use these powers with all the wisdom and judgment God grants to me."

With passage of the resolution, he said, "our course is clearly known in every land."

"There can be no mistake, no miscalculation, of where America stands or what this generation of Americans stands for."

He said in Southeast Asia "there is nothing we covet, nothing we seek. Our one desire, our one determination, is that the people of Southeast Asia be left in peace to work out their own destinies in their own way."

The President repeated his unity theme in a White House luncheon with 200 businessmen.

Henry Cabot Lodge, leaving this weekend on a mission to appraise European allies of the Southeast Asian situation, told newsmen Monday "it is safe to assume" that North Viet Nam's leader, Ho Chi Minh, "is not a free agent."

He said he had to believe that North Viet Nam would not have attacked U.S. destroyers without first clearing it with Red China.

Johnson Is at Best in Letters

HONOLULU (AP) — President Johnson's letter - writing habits have been curtailed since he took the nation's top office. Charles J. Jones, 32, of Left Hand Canyon, Boulder, Colo., a student member of the fourth East-West Philosophers' Conference at the University of Hawaii, said he is a "first cousin once removed" of the President.

"His mother and my grandfather were brother and sister," Jones said.

Jones said the President writes him about once a month. "While he was vice president, I used to get letters a couple of pages long. He still writes regularly, but just enough to say hello, now," Jones said.

Americans Paying Debts Better Now

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Americans suddenly are showing more zeal in repaying old debts and less enthusiasm for taking on new ones.

Since World War II especially, installment credit has become a way of life for more and more American families. Can this be changing? Or so the latest figures, surprising to some, reveal just a passing readjustment before a new sprint in extending the "enjoy now — pay later" vogue?

The Federal Reserve Board reports that in June on-the-cuff purchases had their slowest growth in nine months. And repayments of old loans is termed quite high. The board also calls cash payments in department stores more active than just a few months back.

The U.S. Treasury joins in with a report that government savings bond sales in July rose above the June figures.

The Federal Reserve Board of New York adds that in addition to paying old bills, consumers are saving a large portion of the federal income tax cut.

The U.S. Census Bureau this week also has revised its earlier figures on retail sales in June. Earlier it had estimated they set a record. Now it finds they fell slightly below sales in May.

But the $71 million cut in the previous figures still leaves retail sales in June at an impressive $21,675,000,000 and retailers are confident that sales will rise this fall.

While consumers were spending the near record amount in June in the stores, they were also putting out $5,029,000,000 to repay their installment debt. The Federal Reserve Board terms the average repayments in the second quarter of the year "the best on record."

The wonderment arises because in the first three months of the year there was a big jump in outstanding consumer credit and also in retail sales. Most of this period was before the income tax cut went into effect. The increase in take-home pay was supposed to pep up both activities markedly.

Since then, neither sales nor installment credit expanded as had been predicted.

Extensions of installment credit in June came to $5.4 billion. But taking into account the repayments, this brought total consumer installment credit out-

PORTO ERCOLE, Italy (AP) — Mrs. John F. Kennedy was vacationing today on the picturesque Argentario Peninsula of the Tuscan Archipelago.

Mrs. Kennedy and her sister are staying in a villa only of a few hundred yards from that of Queen Juliana of the Netherlands. Dutch Princess Beatrix welcomed Mrs. Kennedy arrival in Porto Ercole.

ROME (AP) — Dictors issued another optimistic report today on the condition of President Antonio Segni, stricken last Friday with a cerebral stroke.

"The president of the republic passed another tranquil night, sleeping for some hours," the medical bulletin said. "His morning his general condition remains good. Pulse and breathing are regular."

The duties of the 73-year-old president have been taken over temporarily by Senate President Cesare Merzagora.

NEW YORK (AP) — An Arkansas who has been seen recently in cowboy boots, a 10-gallon hat and a shirt opened at the collar was named Sunday as one of the nation's best dressed men.

Winthrop Rockefeller, the Republican candidate for governor, was the winner in the society category of a list compiled by the Fashion Foundation of America.

The foundation picked men in 13 fields; including President Johnson in the public life category, and Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., in the government field.

Winners in other categories were: Civic affairs — Mayor Robert standing to $55.9 billion, up only $370 million from May. This was the smallest gain since the $341 million last September.

And it's the trend that businessmen are watching just now, more than the record total. They know that Americans owe a great deal which they expect to repay at regular intervals. What the businessmen are watching is how fast, or how slow, this total is growing.

We would like to thank our friends for the kind thoughts, love, and prayers shown us during the loss of our beloved Dennis. We sincerely thank you, one and all.

Prize Actor Explains His Low Casting

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Interviews with Jack Klugman usually start with one question:

"What on earth is the actor who won an Emmy for last season's finest dramatic performance doing playing father in one of these half-hour situation comedies?"

Klugman's forthright response provides no release from press agent pain.

"I signed to do the show before I got the Emmy. Of course I'd never have done it if the Emmy had come first."

Klugman gave an impressive performance on CBS' "The Defenders" as an actor whose letting political beliefs destroyed his career.

In October he will turn up as a regular in a piece of NBC fluff called "Harris Against the World." It is part of a comedy trilogy titled "90 Bristol Court."

"They offered me a firm commitment for 26 weeks," Klugman continued, "and I decided to take the show because it was important for me to get stabilized for a while. I found I was spending at least half my life out here in Hollywood at a time when it was important for my boy, who is five, to have his father around more."

He sold his home outside New York and the family is here now in a rented house.

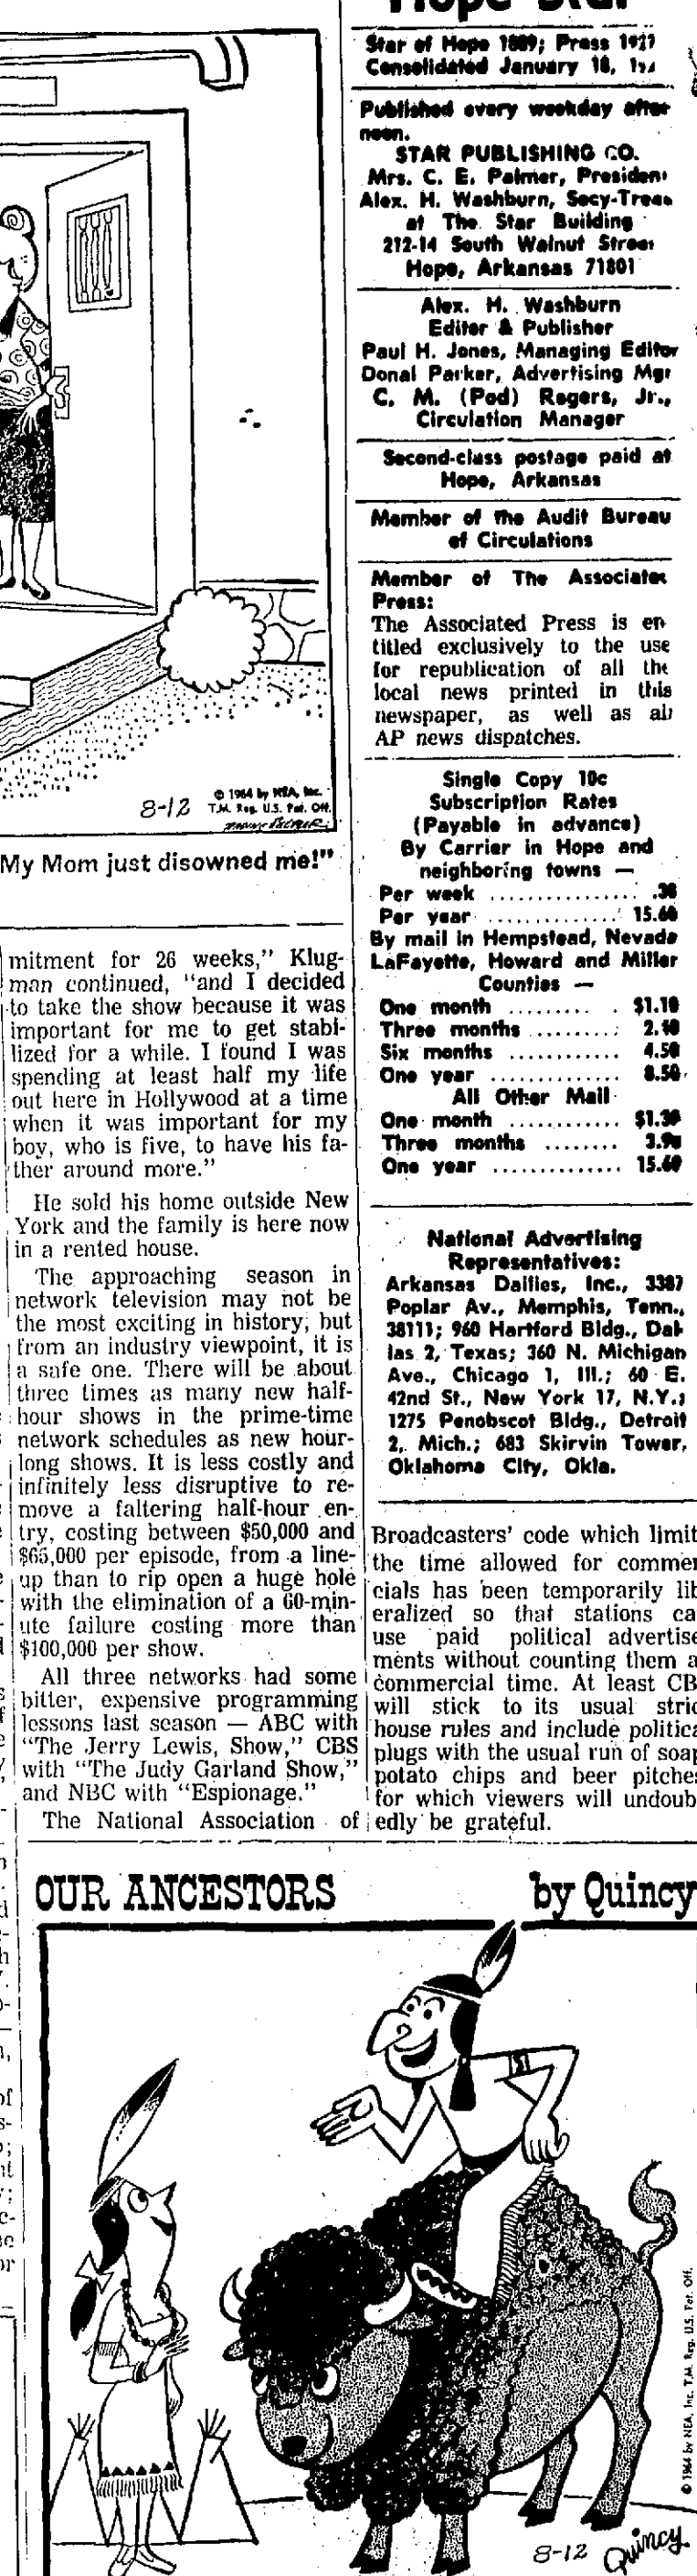

The approaching season in network television may not be the most exciting in history, but from an industry viewpoint, it is a safe one. There will be about three times as many new half-hour shows in the prime-time network schedules as new hour-long shows. It is less costly and infinitely less disruptive to remove a faltering half-hour entry, costing between $50,000 and $65,000 per episode, from a lineup than to rip open a huge hole with the elimination of a 60-minute failure costing more than $100,000 per show.

All three networks had some bitter, expensive programming lessons last season — ABC with "The Jerry Lewis Show," CBS with "The Judy Garland Show," and NBC with "Espionage."

The National Association of Broadcasters' code which limits the time allowed for commercials has been temporarily liberalized so that stations can use paid political advertisements without counting them as commercial time. At least CBS will stick to its usual strict house rules and include political plugs with the usual run of soap, potato chips and beer pitches, for which viewers will undoubtedly be grateful.

Extremism Bid Eyed by Democrats

By JOHN R. STARR
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas delegates to the Democratic National Convention believe their party can pick up some election mileage by adopting a platform plank against extremism.

Twenty-one of 27 Democratic delegates who answered an Associated Press poll said the Democrats should disavow extremism. Only four said they should not.

One of the four, who requested that his name not be used, asked, "What purpose would it serve?"

And delegate Don Blackmon of Little Rock, a school official, said convention criticism of extremism should be general, not specific.

The Republicans first defeated an attempt to specifically disavow the John Birch Society and the Ku Klux Klan, then rejected an effort for a general disavowal of extremism.

Delegate Carl Wells Jr. of Wilnot said he wanted all extreme groups disavowed, "including CORE (the Congress of Racial Equality) and the NAACP (National Association for the Advancement of Colored People)."

Jack G. Coleman of Marianna, chairman of the Arkansas Students for (President) Johnson, said the Democratic convention should define the party's position on extremism—either for or against—but he did not say what he felt the position should be.

Extremism is likely to be one of the top topics for discussion when the convention meets in Atlantic City, N.J., late this month.

The delegates showed in the poll a preference for a conservative Democratic vice presidential nominee, but they expressed a willingness to accept a liberal candidate to "balance the ticket" with Johnson, a southerner.

Eight of the 22 delegates who listed a vice presidential favor it named Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota. The remaining 14 votes were scattered among a dozen men.

The delegates also expressed a fear that the Republican ticket of Barry Goldwater and William E. Miller will carry Arkansas against Johnson in November.

Only six of the 26 delegates who answered a question about Goldwater-Miller strength said flatly that they felt Arkansas would remain in the Democratic fold. Two other said a Republican victory was doubtful.

The delegates also fear that the GOP ticket will make an impressive showing over the entire South. Most of them were ready to cede Alabama, where Democratic Gov. George Wallace has all but endorsed Goldwater, to the Republicans.

They believe Mississippi, Louisiana and Florida are the next weakest Democratic states in that order.

He May Get Into Wrong Jail at That

GRiffin, Ga. (AP)—Police say a 67-year-old man may have run into a stumbling block in his plan to return to Georgia State Prison.

Officers said Walter K. Vickers tossed a rock through a post office window in a bid for another prison term. They said he told them most of his friends are in prison and prison life is easier than on the outside.

Records show Vickers was in Georgia State Prison from 1953 until this year. However, damaging a post office is a federal offense.

Vickers could wind up in a federal prison without his friends after all.

Pledges No Violence at 'Wall'

BONN, Germany (AP)—With the approach of the third anniversary of the Berlin wall, Chancellor Ludwig Erhard of West Germany pledged today not to use force to knock down the barrier.

Erhard said his government and its allies stood by their promise to safeguard the freedom of West Berlin. But he said West Germany "will not let itself be drawn into any use of violence, such as the Communist side repeatedly imputes to it."

Erhard added that his government repeatedly has announced its readiness "for a peaceful solution of the German question, but it would be a delusion if the East saw in that a sign of recognition for the reality of terror it has created."

Erhard's remarks were contained in the bulletin of the government press office. The Communists closed the border between East and West Berlin Aug. 13, 1961, and put up the wall in the following weeks. The West Germans call it "the wall of shame."

New Italian President Conservative

ROME (AP)—Cesare Merzagora an advocate of free enterprise, has taken office as acting president of Italy, and this could mean trouble for the new center-left government of Premier Aldo Moro.

Moro, a 47-year-old Christian Democrat, head a government consisting of Christian Democrats, Democratic Socialists, Socialists, and Republicans.

Last month, when Moro was forming his new government with the aid of the Socialists, Merzagora openly opposed the coalition formula.

At that time, Merzagora, 65, was president of the Italian Senate. Three days ago, a stroke felled President Antonio Segni, and Monday the Italian government decided the 73-year-old president is temporarily incapable of performing his duties.

Refusal by Merzagora to sign a decree issued by Moro's government. Moro is expected to issue several decrees to fight Italy's economic slump.

Refusal by Merzagora to sign a decree would kill it unless both houses sent it back to the president with a two-thirds majority.

Merzagora doesn't belong to any political party. During World War II, he was a member of the anti-Fascist resistance.

In 1947, he was named minister of foreign trade and eventually boosted the Italian economy through his vigorous promotion of Italian exports.

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Should ABC's new comedy series, "No Time For Sergeants" prove to be anything like the movie of the same name, a better title for the television series would be "Jethro Clappett Joins the Army."

The business of adapting a popular film or book as a series has certain marked advantages. "Dr. Kildare" made its television debut as a pioneering doctor show with a bit of audience insurance because a lot of people knew and loved the old radio and movie "Kildare" shows.

"Sergeants" has the advantage of the popular hillbilly theme of an innocent country jake who naively outwits the sharp con men—at least that was the way it was in the movie, now visible around the channels in reruns.

Getting a television program onto the air is an expensive gamble with odds so high against a hit show that it is surprising so many people are willing to take the risk.

An even more delicate operation, however, is maintaining public interest in a series that has been around a few seasons and whose format is beginning to wear thin.

Thus at the beginning of each new television season we inevitably hear about changes in progress.

For instance, this season NBC will send "Dr. Kildare" to Rome, far from his usual hospital base, and Bill Dana's bellhop character will have a chance to leave his hotel occasionally.

"Rawhide," which has been driving that herd of cattle over the CBS plains for years, will spruce up with some big-name guest stars, while "Gunsmoke's" Marshal Dillon will have a new sidekick after all those years of relying on Chester for chuckles.

"Lassie" will lose her old adoring family and start life anew with an adoring forest ranger. "Mr. Novak" will encounter a new, pretty dean of girls at his high school, and Andy Griffith will be romantically interested in a new girl in town for the second of third time since the series started.

ing said there was considerable improvement in Segni's condition.
